EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

At the gates of moksh, liberation, and sakshatkar, self-realisation, three guards are posted to ask you for your credentials. They are — shanti, santosh and vichar, that is peace, mental equilibrium; joy, contentment; and inquiry, discrimination. Even if you become friendly with only one of the guards, the others will facilitate your entry.

Be comfortable in all environments. The capacity to concentrate is a very useful qualification. You must watch the vagaries of your own mind — how it travels, what objects it runs after — and, slowly, by means of meditation, you should teach it to stay still and to behave beneficially.

Do not worry about the unsatisfactory environment you may have. You can overcome the drawbacks by training your own mind. Stay in your environment and pray to the Lord! Pray that He may fill you with His thoughts and His vision, making you ignore the defects of the environment. Do not seek comfort, for comfort might not be conducive to meditation. Learn to be comfortable in any place; that is better. Live in joy wherever you are; that is the way. Revel in the realm of your mind; worship in the mind the Lord you have chosen as your goal and be free of all the defects of the natural or human environment. Then, no spot can be irksome to you, nor will any place seem disgusting.

NEWS SPARKLERS

The world's only honey-producing ants

New York: Honeypot Ants, or honey ants, are specialized workers of several species of ants whose sole job is to gorge on nectar until they become living honey-storage.

Several other species of bees, as well as bumblebees and even wasps are known to produce the sugary treat, but perhaps the most unusual insect able to convert nectar into honey is the honeypot ant. Belonging to a number of ant species, the most common of which is Camponotus inflatus, honeypot ants are specialized workers that act as living storage for their colonies when food is scarce.

Most species of honeypot ants are found in dry, desert, or semi-arid regions in Australia, the USA, Mexico, and on the African continent, where finding food sources can be tough, so the production and storage of honey is believed to be an adaptation to survive in these rough environments.

Bird flies 13,500 kms without stopping

Alaska: A five-month-old bar-tailed godwit recently smashed the record for long-distance migration after flying 13,560 kilometers nonstop over a period of 11 days.

Every autumn, millions of migratory birds take to the sky for a long and perilous journey to escape the coming cold, feed and breed for the next few months. Many of them cover impressive distances of over 10,000 kilometers (6,200 miles), but this year, one small bird surpassed all expectations regarding long-distance flying, traveling a whopping 13,560 kilometers (8,425 miles) without stopping and setting a new Guinness record in the process. And it was all because of an unusual detour that could have cost the bird its life, considering that the non-stop journey pushed its flight capacity to the limit.

Checking traffic offenders: Some suggestions to Cops

Sir,

This refers to the news item titled 'Police intensify drive against traffic violators' in yesterday's Star of Mysore. Checking traffic offenders is fine but please do not harass office-goers during peak hours. This is my suggestion to the Police who are bent upon intensifying the drive against traffic violators.

I for one do not have anything against the so-called 'Operation Triple Ride' or the drive against helmetless riding and drunken driving among other violations.

As we have seen in the past, we have come across various issues pertaining to accidents and inconvenience to the commuters, especially office-goers both in the morning and evening (peak hours). Hence, I suggest the DCP and the ACP (Traffic) if they could consider relaxing their checking drive between 8.30 am and 10.30 am and 5 pm and 7 pm.

Also, if they could consider providing the helmet for helmetless violators on the spot (along with the fine or without it) and get LLR or DL done for those who are found to be without one. I am sure insurance providers would be more than happy to accompany Traffic Police teams during the drive as they can provide insurance for those who do not possess or for those who carry lapsed insurances.

And as far as triple riding and stunt riding is concerned, please cancel their licences and make them pay a hefty fine for this should teach a lesson to others.

I am also sure that collecting fines isn't the only objective of this checking drive?

Lured into investing money in UK-based online company

Temple Priest cheated of Rs. 5.42 lakh

Mysuru, Nov. 25- A priest, who was lured by Postmasters and their friends to invest money in a UK-based online company by offering huge profits, has been cheated of Rs. 5.42 lakh.

While the cheated person is 44-year-old Swamy, a priest at Sri Ayyappaswamy Temple near T. Narasipur KSRTC Bus Stand, those accused of luring and cheating the priest are Prakash, a Postmaster at Hyakanur village Post Office, Sangappa, also a Postmaster at Nagarle Post Office, Prakash, Ramakrishna, Srikanta and Rajasingh.

Details: Postmaster Prakash, who was known to Swamy, met the priest on July 10 and asked him (priest) to invest money in UK-based Defiverse Online company and also told the priest that if he invested Rs. 1 lakh for 525 days, he would get Rs. 5.25 lakh in return. Prakash also told the priest to introduce customers from his side as he would be getting commission for it.

Believing Postmaster Prakash, priest Swamy gave Rs. 5.42 lakh to the Postmaster and also introduced Kendagannaswamy, Nagaraju, Appu Swamy, Preetham and Inayath Pasha to Prakash.

On Aug. 16, the accused held a meeting at a private hotel in Mysuru where they asked the priest and other investors to introduce more people so that they would get good commission.

Initially, priest Swamy received the commission for four months and later it stopped. Swamy, in his complaint, has stated that he has been cheated of Rs. 5.42 lakh, but does not know how much others were cheated.

Based on the complaint, City's CEN Police, who have registered a case, are investigating.

Mysuru, Nov. 25- A case has been registered against a woman for allegedly cheating a man of Rs. 3.20 lakh on the pretext of giving her house on lease and also for caste abuse at Hebbal Police Station.

G. Jayalakshmi Singh, a resident of Hebbal, had advertised on OLX about giving her house near Sankranti Circle on lease. S. Sandesh, an engineer and a resident of Brindavan Layout, who noticed the advertisement, met Jayalakshmi, held talks with her and between July 18 and 26, Sandesh paid a total sum of Rs. 3.20 lakh in phases following which Jayalakshmi had said that she would hand over the house in 15 days, the complaint stated.

The complaint further stated that on Oct. 5, when he (Sandesh) met Jayalakshmi, she abused him about his caste and told him that she would not give her house on lease to him. When he asked her to return his money, Jayalakshmi gave him a cheque for Rs. 3.20 lakh, which bounced.

When he again met Jayalakshmi and enquired about the bounced cheque, she again abused him on his caste and threatened with life. Based on the complaint, Hebbal Police, who have registered a case, are investigating.

Agarbathi industry spreading happiness for 250 years: CM

AIAMA-2022, a three-day International Agarbathi Expo and Conference begins in Bengaluru

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai inaugurating the International Agarbathi Expo and Conference in Bengaluru yesterday as AIAMA President Arjun Ranga, who is also the Managing Director of N. Ranga Rao and Sons Pvt. Ltd. and Minister of Large and Medium Industries Murugesh Nirani look on.

Bengaluru,Nov.25(Agencies)- Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai has said that the incense (Agarbathi) industry has been spreading happiness along with aroma for the last 250 years. "It has a big history and it's a science too. In Western countries, people are into the creation of artificial aroma. But India is a biodiversity country and aroma-yielding products are available naturally," the CM said.

The CM was speaking after inaugurating the three-day International Agarbathi Expo and Conference (AIAMA-2022) and an 'Agarbathi Expo' organised by All India Agarbathi Manufacturers Association at Palace Grounds in Bengaluru yesterday.

Revenue Minister R. Ashoka, Minister of Large and Medium Industries Murugesh Nirani and Managing Director of S.H. Kelkar and Co. Ltd. Kedar Vaze, were also present. "No other industry is like that of the incense industry. Small happiness will give big celebrations," Bommai added.

Over 80 percent of Agarbathi workers are women. This is totally in alignment with the Government's 'Stree Shakti Scheme', which empowers rural women by providing training, employment, wealth generation schemes and subsidies to make them financially independent, Bommai noted.

"The Government is ready to extend all cooperation to the incense industry. This has given jobs in rural areas. We are bringing a scheme of loan-cum-subsidy for those in traditional professions as this will strengthen the economy at the grassroots level," he added.

Karnataka, also known as 'gandhada gudi', is home to some of the most mesmerising fragrances like jasmine and sandalwood. For centuries, the kingdoms of this region have patronised traditions and culture and encouraged the art of Agarbathi making, creativity and the blending of perfumes, the CM added.

Spread across India

Speaking on the occasion, AIAMA President Arjun Ranga, who is also the Managing Director of N. Ranga Rao and Sons Pvt. Ltd., the makers of Cycle Pure Agarbathi, said "Indian Agarbathis stand out from the rest of the world because of the quality of the fragrances. The Agarbathi industry is not centred around Karnataka anymore; today it is spread across Gujarat though the majority of Agarbathi is from Karnataka. The industry has spread across Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, Odisha and other Eastern parts of India too.''

"This is the first time that the Agarbathi industry is holding an event of this scale. We will work closely with the Government to ensure a broader engagement in order to help all stakeholders, including manufacturers, suppliers, retailers and society," he added.

The event, conceptualised with the theme 'Traditionally Modern' has over 170 exhibitors from across the country and from Vietnam, Indonesia and a few European countries. There are close to 8,000 delegates visiting the expo. A special edition of picture postcards was released by the Department of Post to commemorate this occasion.

The expo has 500 stalls, curated speaker sessions and panel discussions on extensive topics such as future of Indian retail, innovations in packaging and the future of duplex and corrugation and fragrance trends in India. The event showcases the origin of Agarbathi and important milestones in the Agarbathi industry using exhibits such as iconic photographs, unique Agarbathi samples and so on.

Forensic analysis vital for justice delivery

"The purpose of forensic science is to provide guidance to those conducting criminal investigations and the judicial system through the recognition and retrieval of evidence at crime scenes and accurate information," Upalokayukta Justice K.N. Phaneendra said.

Medicine is a noble profession and doctors have the highest responsibilities over the life of a patient and his body. However, this profession requires advanced education and training which calls for continuous updating. What every doctor should remember is that their service and knowledge may be required for the administration of law and justice, he stated.

Accuracy of justice

"While the primary objective of a doctor is to ensure the good health of the people in particular and society and nation in general, helping the judiciary to deliver justice is also their responsibility. The use of scientific tools and techniques in crime detection helps in justice delivery. The evidence determines the accuracy of the innocence or guilt of the offender and as such, the process of law becomes easier and authentic," Justice Phaneendra observed.

Various laws have been enacted to protect the human body that is a property of individual persons. The laws include Indian Penal Code, Criminal Procedure Code, Information Technology Act, cyber laws and the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act. "These laws ensure personal safety and justice administration when such laws are violated becomes easy and accurate with the help of forensic analysis," the Upalokayukta said.

Crime detection and updation

Crime has crossed all barriers and it has become more advanced. The analyses and results of forensic laboratories are critical for the criminal justice system. Also, doctors need to update themselves at such conferences. Unless doctors are well-equipped to deal with new crimes, society will fall into dangerous hands, he noted. Such conferences help inculcate skills and builds networks. They create an opportunity for doctors and experts to learn from each other by sharing knowledge, he opined.

The judicial system understands the role that forensic evidence plays in trials as there is no room for bias or discrimination while using scientific techniques and methods. "Forensic technologies enable the system to work efficiently," he added.

The two-day conference is designed to bring various professionals and experts actively involved in scientific investigation of crime and to discuss and deliberate about the current trends and developments in the field of forensic medicine and allied branches of forensic sciences like cyber forensics, forensic anthropology and criminology.

Over 200 forensic experts, investigators and researchers from all over India including Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Kerala, Tamil Nadu and Rajasthan are participating in the conference.

JSS Academy of Higher Education & Research (JSS AHER) Vice-Chancellor Dr. Surinder Singh presided over the event.

JSS AHER Registrar Dr. B. Manjunatha and JSS Medical College Principal Dr. H. Basavanagowdappa were the guests of honour.

Karnataka Medico-Legal Society President Dr. M. Arun, who is also the Head of Forensic Medicine, JSS Medical College (JSS MC); Society Treasurer Dr. Smitha Rani; JSS MC Professor of Forensic Medicine Dr. H.V. Chandrakanth and others were present.

2023 Assembly elections: BJP to launch poll campaign from Dec.10

Bengaluru, Nov. 25 (KMS& DM)- With Assembly elections just a few months away, the BJP in a bid to stay ahead of the Opposition parties — Congress and JD(S) — in poll preparations, has decided to launch a full-fledged poll campaign from Dec. 10. The RSS, which is the backbone of the BJP, is said to have summoned CM Basavaraj Bommai to 'Keshava Krupa', the State RSS Headquarters, a couple of days ago and gave him some tips on poll preparations.

The BJP top leadership, as part of its poll strategy, has classified the 224 Assembly segments of the State as A, B and C categories based on the party's strength. While A category means that the party is sure to win, B category segments are that the party can win with more efforts and C category has Constituencies which the party has never won before and very difficult to win even now.

Meanwhile, sources said that Prime Minister Narendra Modi will nominate 5 Ministers to oversee the poll preparations in the State, soon after the Gujarat Assembly elections get over. These tasked Ministers will start operating from their war rooms to be set up for the purpose, from Dec. 10 itself.

The preparations include extensive travel across the State, following the tips of the party high command, adequately and appropriately responding to the Opposition parties' allegations, reaching out to the voters and ensuring effective delivery of Government services and benefits to targeted beneficiaries and communities.

This apart, the BJP has set its eyes on improving its support base in old Mysuru region and has targeted 40 Constituencies for victory. The poll campaign and the responsibility of the party's show has been vested with Ministers R. Ashoka, Dr. C.N. Ashwathnarayan, Dr. K. Sudhakar and Muniratna, according to sources, which also said that the party has planned to overcome the anti-incumbency factor and the corruption charges that the Government is facing.

Waste segregation plant inside public park

Residents of Hebbal Third Stage oppose MCC move as park will turn into dry waste dump yard

Mysuru, Nov. 25 (BCT) - The Mysuru City Corporation's (MCC) plans to sort waste inside a public park in Hebbal have not gone down well with residents of the area. Huge constructions are coming up inside the park in complete violation of Karnataka Parks, Play-Field and Open Spaces (Preservation and Regulation) Act, 1985.

The park is located beside Basava Marga Foundation, Hebbal Third Stage near an educational institution and all its four sides face the Ring Road. The park is spread in an approximate area of half acre and most of the space is being taken up by the construction of a solid waste segregation unit.

Residents who spoke to the MCC engineers reveal that as per the plan initiated by the civic body, the waste collected from houses and public areas in and around Hebbal and Vijayanagar will be brought here to segregate. "Gradually, this area will be converted as a dry waste dump yard," said residents who are opposing the segregation unit.

The area is sparsely populated and people have purchased plots in the vicinity to build houses later. "This is a small park and gradually, movement of vehicles, including garbage trucks will increase and spoil the park premises. Garbage will get accumulated causing bad odour. If segregation at source was enforced effectively, there would be no need to set up segregation units in such areas," Vidyut Shashidhar, a resident of the area told Star of Mysore this morning.

As per the Karnataka Parks, Play-Field and Open Spaces (Preservation and Regulation) Act 1985, nothing can be built in a park measuring 2.5 hectares. If it is larger than 2.5 hectares, less than 5 percent of the area can be used for building a dwelling for the security guard or to store park equipment and nothing else.

5-year-old trees removed

"Earlier, the MCC used to segregate waste near the High-Tension Park under the high-tension power lines. But now, that area has been declared as a buffer zone and the waste segregation plant is being built inside the park here. To mark the World Environment Day about five years ago, the Forest Department and the local residents joined hands in planting hundreds of saplings here. But now, the MCC bulldozers have removed all the plants to make way for waste segregation," he added.

"Parks and playgrounds in MCC limits were not meant for dumping waste. If at all the civic body wants to make waste processing units and waste dumping or segregation centres, they can recover thousands of acres of its land that has been encroached upon and use it for dumping waste," Vidyut Shashidhar said.

When the residents questioned the jurisdictional MCC engineer, he said that five percent of any park can be used for construction. "Works slowed down a bit when we questioned the logic behind setting up a waste unit inside an area that has been specifically marked as a public park. But after a few days, construction has resumed rapidly," he added.

'Laws have remained on paper; MCC does not care'

Bhamy Shenoy

Environment activist and Mysore Grahakara Parishat (MGP) Convenor Bhamy V. Shenoy said that ideally segregation units should be far away from residential places. Once they start collecting waste, the area becomes unhealthy. If the MCC uses part of park space for garbage disposal, it will spoil the entire park, he said.

"We have lost many parks in Mysuru as it is the MCC that is violating rules, a classic case of fence eating the crop. The five percent construction as mentioned in the Karnataka Parks, Play-Field and Open Spaces (Preservation and Regulation) Act, 1985 is not a loophole and this is being misused by the MCC. This five percent goes beyond 40 percent in most of the cases. Sadly, the senior officers these days are not progressive and the lower-rung MCC staff are not aware of the rules," he rued.

"How can the MCC allow such a blatant violation by its own staff? The MCC is taking people and tax-payers for granted. Unfortunately, most of the laws have remained only on paper so far and the residents are the ultimate victims," he said.

Chit fund: Woman cheated of Rs. 2 lakh

Mysuru, Nov. 25- Alanahalli Police, following an order from city's 3rd JMFC Court have registered a case against a woman, for cheating another woman of Rs. 2 lakh in chit fund business.

While the woman, who was cheated is 34-year-old K.M. Veena, a resident of Nimbujamba Road in Nazarbad, the woman, who has been accused of cheating Veena is 38-year-old Shashikala, a resident of Alanahalli in city.

Veena, who was earlier working as a house keeping staff at a hotel in Nazarbad, began to work in different places following the closure of the hotel. It was in the hotel at Nazarbad, where Shashikala and her husband Swamy met Veena and told her that they had obtained license from the Government and were running the chit fund business. They told Veena that a Rs. 2 lakh chit would commence on July 10, 2020 following which Veena enrolled herself to the chit and began to pay the monthly chit fund. The chit concluded in January, 2022 and Shashikala was supposed to pay Rs. 2 lakh to Veena, which she did not do.

Meanwhile, Shashikala's husband Swamy committed suicide and Veena after a few days asked Shashikala for her money. But Shashikala kept on giving reasons since then. On June 8, Shashikala abused Veena with foul language and even threatened her with life and later Shashikala's both mobile phones were switched off, according to the complaint. Alanahalli Police, who have registered a case, are investigating.

Ancient 11th century temple on Cauvery River bank regains lost glory

OAM completes second stage renovation of Bhoga Narasimha Temple

The 11th century temple situated on the banks of Cauvery in Srinivasa Kshetra, Belagola, Mandya district, was discovered by the members of Orissa Association Mysore (OAM) in September 2003 in a dilapidated condition and they decided to renovate and restore it to its past glory. "The task was herculean but with help and support from many noble personalities in Mysuru, Bengaluru and Odisha, we could complete the 2nd stage renovation work. We did the major renovation in 2008. But due to various reasons, the 2nd stage renovation work of Bhoga Narasimha Shrine could not be taken up. Finally, our cherished dream fulfilled on Nov. 13, 2022 when the Bhoga Narasimha Gopuram work was completed," says D.K. Misra, Founder-Member and former President of OAM, who is currently in New York.

Gopuram Pranaprathistha

It is indeed a dream come true for OAM, which has completed the second stage renovation work of Bhoga Narasimha Temple, situated on the banks of River Cauvery, Srinivasa Kshetra, Belagola, Mandya, on way to Brindavan Gardens.

The Mahasamprokshana ceremony (Pranaprathistha) was performed on the auspicious day of Nov. 13, 2022. The Management of Parasara Gurukulam, Belagola, conducted the ceremony as per "Sastra" following all rules and rituals. Gurukulam Management also provided all logistic support and help for the ceremony.

Members of OAM have expressed their gratitude to Guru Sri Viraraghavacharya, Founder of Parasara Gurukulam, Sri Sriram, Managing Director, staff and students of the Gurukulam for managing the event successfully. OAM has also thanked the devotees and patrons, who came from Mysuru, Bengaluru, and other parts of Karnataka for the function.

It is needless to mention about the support provided by the villagers of Belagola, headed by Sri Srinivasa Gowda, the Doddayajamana of the village. They walked hand-in-hand with Orissa Association for the renovation of this neglected but unique ancient temple. OAM has also appreciated and recognised the Sthapati Sri Selvanathan and his team. They are from the world famous Sri Vaidyanatha Sthapati Associates, Chennai. For details, visit www.sthapati.org

The 2nd stage renovation was limited to the Gopuram of Sri Bhoga Narasimha Temple. Members of Orissa Association are highly obliged to all DCs, Additional DCs, Tahsildars, Deputy Tahsildars and all Government officials in Mandya district, from the year 2004 till now, for their timely support.

Background

Going down the memory lane, one Sunday afternoon in early September 2003, some members of OAM went to an unfamiliar location on Cauvery River bank with family members for immersion of Ganesha idol. Those days, the location, although extremely serene and scenic, was equally lonely and scary. After the immersion of Ganesha, when the family members were getting ready to return, a dilapidated structure looking like a temple drew their attention. Out of curiosity, a couple of members trod up to the temple through bushy and thorny field. The entire surrounding was covered with wild growth and looking as if no one came to the site for years.

The temple structure was looking completely ruined and in a state of disintegration. Without any knowledge about the temple and its owner, as if on a divine prompting, OAM took instant decision for renovating and restoring the dilapidated temple. Subsequently, it was learnt from Belagola village elders that the temple was a property of Government of Karnataka under DC Mandya and deities were Sri Srinivasa and Bhoga Narasimha with Sri Devi and Bhu Devi.

OAM approached Mandya DC in early 2004 and in December same year, written approval was received from Government. Without losing time, OAM appointed a student from Maharaja Sanskrit College Sri Anantasayan and started regular puja from the auspicious day of Maha Vishuba Sankranti on April 14, 2005.

Soon the matter drew the attention of all major print media and the news about the renovation of the ancient temple spread in overwhelming speed. And consequently, drew the attention of many philanthropists and noble persons of not only from Mysuru and Mandya but also from Bengaluru and other parts of Karnataka, Odisha and various places in India.

Renowned archaeologists, historians, religious scholars and engineers like Dr. Nagaraj Rao, Dr. M.S. Krishna Murthy, Dr. Shalva Pillai Iyengar, Engineer Sri Narasimhaiah and Dharmadhikari of Shankar Mutt Sri H.R. Ramachandra joined the endeavour of OAM to complete this noble work in a professional manner.

A Technical Committee was constituted taking these specialists in the team. Md. Jan, a specialist modeller from Hampi, was brought in to renovate the Gopuram. Md. Jan has earned credits in the field of archaeological restoration of Hindu temples in India and abroad. These specialists, after making research, have opined that the Venkateswara Temple was built around 11th century AD during Chola Dynasty and subsequent additions and modifications were taken place during Vijayanagar Empire and Wadiyars.

These specialists also appreciated the archaeological importance of this temple. OAM, as an organisation, has attracted a lot of commendation and media coverage in recent times for its noble effort in the restoration work. Although the temple structure was in a dilapidated condition, the deities carved out of black granite, appear majestic and beautiful.

The Technical Committee, to restore this temple to its original condition, prepared a Detailed Project Report (DPR) with work and cost estimation of Rs. 28 lakh and a period of one year to complete this mission. The renovation work started in early 2006 after guddali puja in the presence of Sri Parakala Mutt Swamiji, President of ISKCON Mysuru and many dignitaries.

Subsequently, while the work was in progress and dismantling the walls of the temple and checking the foundation, it was observed that the deteriorations to the structures were much more than what was anticipated. So, the Technical Committee revised the project cost and the first stage renovation work was completed in February 2008 with expenditure of Rs. 42 lakh, which included strengthening of all-round foundation, realignment of walls except rear wall of Bhoga Narasimha Shrine, recasting of entire roof top and partial repair of Bhoga Narasimha Gopuram. And it was termed as 1st stage renovation, leaving the balance work of completing Bhoga Narasimha Gopuram and some other ancillary work in 2nd stage. The projected cost for completing the 2nd stage renovation was Rs. 25 lakh.

Because of the remoteness of the place, various antisocial and criminal activities like frequent burglaries, gambling occurred in and around the temple premises. Hence, the urgency of a boundary wall was felt. So, a solid tall wall was constructed with 2 gates in the year 2012-13 with a total expenditure of Rs. 12 lakh.

Now another major work completed with renovation of Bhoga Narasimha Gopuram at a cost of around Rs. 20 lakh. This highly cumbersome work was possible with the help and assistance of many noble personalities, philanthropists and devotees with moral and financial support. OAM is indebted to all of them.

After completion of renovation and restoration of the temple, the task before OAM is to build a community centre with modern facilities near the temple and engage itself in community development work. This will cover research on traditional art, culture, dance and music of Karnataka and Odisha, research on Vedic Studies and Agama Sastra, Yoga training and assisting in arranging marriage functions.

Devotees desiring to visit the temple for darshan or puja, may contact the Archaka Sri Ranganathan on Mob: +91-99024-17506.

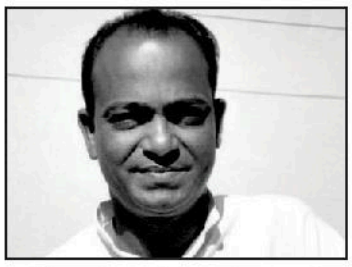
Shanthaveri Gopalagowda Birth Centenary celebrations held



Shanthaveri Gopalagowda

- Gopalagowda was a Statesman-Politican, says former Vice-Chancellor Prof. K. Chidananda Gowda
- Ex-MLA and veteran Socialist Konandur Lingappa feted

Mysuru, Nov. 25 (MTY&DM)- Former Kuvempu University Vice-Chancellor Prof. K. Chidananda Gowda said that renowned Socialist Shanthaveri Gopalagowda was not just a politician but also a Statesman of his times.

He was speaking after inaugurating Shanthaveri Gopalagowda Birth Centenary celebrations organised jointly by Nataraja Prathishtana, Kannada Sahitya Parishat and Kannada Sahitya Kalakoota at Nataraja Sabha Bhavan here on Wednesday.

Maintaining that there are two types of politicians — one general (Rajakarini) and the other 'Rashtrakarini', Prof. Chidananda Gowda said that while a general politician will only think about the next election, a 'Rashtrakarini' will think about the country as a whole and the next generation.

Gopalagowda was a 'Rashtrakarini' in the true sense, he said adding that the Socialist leader always advocated value-based politics.

Recalling that Gopalagowda took exception to the inscription at the entrance of Vidhana Soudha which read 'Sarkari Kelasa Devara Kelasa' (meaning Government's work is God's work) when Kengal Hanumanthaiah was the Chief Minister, he said that Gopalagowda wanted the script to read as 'Sarkari Kelasa Srisamanyanara Kelasa' (meaning Government's work is Common man's work). Though he died at 49 years of age, he has left behind an indelible legacy, which should be followed by current crop of politicians as a leading light, he said.

Former MLA and veteran Socialist Konandur Lingappa said that the Kannada movement was first launched in Mysuru in the 1950s, when English nameboards on establishments were removed and replaced with Kannada ones. Recalling that Gopalagowda along with himself (Lingappa), K.P. Poornachandra Tejaswi, Kadidal Shamanna, Sundaresh, Aithal and others established 'Kannada Yuvajana Sabha' for the cause of Kannada, he said that this movement extended to the entire State subsequently.

He further said that Poet Laureate Kuvempu had paid for printing of pamphlets that advocated mother-tongue (Kannada) as the medium of instruction in primary education. Kuvempu was behind all the activities of the Yuvajana Sabha, he added.

Konandur Lingappa was felicitated on the occasion.

Earlier, floral tributes were offered to the portrait of Shanthaveri Gopalagowda.

Hosamutt Seer Sri Chidananda Swamiji graced the occasion. Sri Nataraja Prathishtana Special Officer Dr. S. Shivarajappa presided. District Kannada Sahitya Parishat President Maddikere Gopal, Kannada Sahitya Kalakoota President M. Chandrashekar, Shanthaveri Gopalagowda Samajwadi Prathishtana Secretary Rammanohar Shanthaveri, District Sharana Sahitya Parishat President Dr. Helavarahundi Siddappa, K.S. Shivaramu and others were present.

'Swasthya Mitra' Award conferred on five Ayurveda Doctors

Mysuru, Nov.25 (SPN&DM)- Five Ayurveda doctors were conferred 'Swasthya Mitra' Award at a programme organised at Government Ayurveda College premises on Sayyaji Rao Road here on Wednesday.

The award, instituted by city-based Ramakrishna Educational Institutions, was given to Dr. B.N. Shashidhar, Dr. K.V. Mamatha, Dr. Gowrishankar, Dr. Padyana Subramanya Bhat and Dr. B.S. Sridhar. Speaking after conferring the award, Swami Shivakantanandaji said that knowledge and success are the assets of achievers. Observing that medical students should have patience and the yearn for learning, he stressed on the need for carrying out continuous studies, both theoretical and practical, to get expertise.

Noting that Ramakrishna Paramahamsa saw the almighty in Yoga, Shivakantanandaji said that everyone should give prominence for practicing Yoga on a daily basis. Stating that Mysuru Ayurveda College has over a century old history, he said that the alumni of the college have become successful in their career, while some are in top positions. He called upon the Ayurveda students to get their guidance for professional advancement.

Recalling how he was cured by Ayurveda when he had contracted jaundice several years ago, he said that a kind and friendly approach by treating doctors will help in the faster recovery of patients.

'Rasashastra', a book for Ayurveda students, was released on the occasion.

College Acting Principal Dr. Venkatakrishna, Mysuru Ayurveda Doctors Association President Dr. B. Gurubasavaraj and others were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Shillelagh

Pronunciation: shuh-ley-lee, -luh.
Meaning: A club or stick, traditionally of blackthorn or oak.
Origin: Shillelagh, "club, stick" has two possible origins. Though it may not seem like one at first, shillelagh may be an example of a toponym, or a word derived from a placename. While English has no shortage of food-related toponyms, this origin of shillelagh is not found in the kitchen. Instead, shillelagh comes from the Irish town name Síol Éalaigh, which is located in County Wicklow, Ireland, next to a forest that once provided wood for the clubs. In the name Síol Éalaigh, síol means "seed, descendant," while Éalaigh is a form of the given name Éalach. Alternatively, shillelagh may derive instead from Irish Gaelic sail, "willow" (compare English sallow), and iall, "strap, thong." Shillelagh was first recorded in English in the 1670s.
Example: Despite its simple appearance as a curved or knobbly cane, the shillelagh is a centerpiece of an Irish variety of martial arts.

THE ODD WORD

Sanable

Able to be healed.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Second-guess

Meaning: To criticise and offer advice, with the benefit of hindsight. To foresee the actions of others, before they have come to a decision themselves.
Origin: A commonly used meaning of 'to second-guess' is to criticise the actions of others, after the event. The event in question was, and often still is, a sporting event. The term is derived as what is known as a back-formation. As back-formations loom large in etymology I'll break off to explain what they are. New words are usually created from existing words. For example, we all know what 'fishing' means and, armed with that knowledge we could easily coin the word 'fisherman' and a phrase like 'fishing for compliments'. Sometimes though, the order that words and phrases are derived in isn't so obvious. For example, people who rob from houses have been called 'burglars' since the 13th century and it might be supposed that they got their name from being engaged in 'burglary'. However, it wasn't until the 19th century that the legal profession decided that 'that thing that burglars do' needed to be given a name and hence 'burglary' was coined as a back-formation from 'burglar'.
